August Sale of

Q $4 and $3.50 Oxfords

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S

A big successful sale, because everybody knows the keynote of Meigs & & Co. shoes is Value with a capital V. This is the clean-up of Summer's broken lines—tan and black Oxfords in all the season's smart shapes—any late style is here, but not in all sizes. By adding newly broken lines every day or two we keep the variety mighty interesting these days.

All of our $5 Oxfords-famous Hee-Haw last and our tan suede 2-eyelet ties-are now $3.85, and M. Oxfords are $3.95-regularly $5.50.

CLEANEASY, THE BEST HAND

THE THEATRES

POLI'S

"The Man on the Box" is certainly pleasing the audiences at Poll's. It is a fine play. Its comedy is rich and inspiring. It has a neat little story to teil and it is well toid by the author. There is a little plot, but it is so small that you hardly know it is there. It is constructed as a play along comedy lines and the author has carried out his theme very well. There are only three acts but every one is brim full of good hearty laughs. The old rafters ring at every show. All the members of the stock company are happily cast. There is not a bad part in the piece. Secure your seats by phone early, as the sales are large.

Belgade, (Via Selmin.) Aug. 11.—The attempted assassination of Crown Prince Alexander by his brother, Prince George, is openly charged today by many persons here as a result of a bomb explosion near the Crown prince's house. A suspect has confessed that he fired the bomb and said that Prince George hired him to do it. When confronted by the prisoner's confession. Prince George admitted that he had hired him but explained that he was merely testing the explosive.

With this explanation' the police dropped the inquiry as royal pressure was then brought to bear. The public, however, desired the story and believe that Prince George has been in a sullen mood ever since he was practically lorded to yield the hership to the Bervian throne in favor of his younger brother, and deliberately sought his brother's death. Prince George's record for recklessness and cruelty is such that it supports this contention.

FIREMEN FIGHT: WITHOUT WATER

With Feeble Stream Brought 2,000 Feet They Prevent Conflagration.

STOWE PROPERTY BURNS

A feeble stream of water was all the fight/a roaring blaze on Marian street in the northern part of the city. The large barn of William B. Stowe, his residence, 30,000 feet of chestnut lum-ber and 2,000 bushels of charcoal were burning at the same time.

Mr. Stowe with his wife and child are in Niagara Falls upon an automo are in Niagara Falls upon an automobile trip. When they return they will find their property reduced to ashes because it was beyond the borders of fire protection where there are no water mains. The alarm was about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from box 31, at Federal street and Madison avenue. Chief Money with No. 4 engine company and No. 1 chemical engine company found the barn nearly destroyed and the attic and roof of the dwelling in flames.

Fairfield County News.

Thrown From Wagon. Percy J. Waters of Danbury received on Sunday what may prove to be internal injuries as the result of a runaway accident. Mr. Waters was driving at Ridgefield when his horse became frightened at a passing automobile. Miss Maybelle Bumster was in the carriage with Mr. Waters. The horse shied to one side of the road, the vehicle striking a post. The impact with the post threw Miss Bumster out and her ankle was broken. Mr. Waters kept his hold on the reins and was dragged over the dashboard and along the street for some distance.

Automobile Accidents.

Automobile Accidents. R. Craig Van Deventer, of Wilton, and his forty horse?power racing auto came to grief Saturday in Cannon Station, when the steering gear gave away, causing the auto to run into a away, causing the auto to run into a ditch with the result that a broken spring was sustained. Mr. Van Deventer was uninjured, probably owing to the fact that he was only going at a moderate rate of speed.

Joseph P. Chandler, chauffeur for H. Durrant Cheever, pleaded guilty in the Greenwich court last week to a charge of driving his machine without a license. Chandler was arrested after colliding with a wagon driven by of driving his machine without a license. Chandler was arrested after colliding with a 'wagon driven by Henry O'Brien, a calf-dealer. O'Brien was thrown out and the wagon demolished. The horse ran and was caught by a chauffour of an approaching car. Chandler gave as his excuse, that the lights of two approaching cars deszled his eyes. He was fined $1 and costs, which were paid.

Leslie E. Moulthrop was run down, struck and dragged nearly one hundred feet, Saturday afternoon, in Coram, by an automobile said to be owned by Wm. R. Bixby, of Seymour, and run by a, son of that gentleman.

Mr. Moulthrop was picked up in an unconscious condition. It is believed that no bones were broken, but Mr. Moulthrop is suffering from bruises and contusions that cover nearly his whole body. He says he neither heard nor saw anything of the Bixey auto. The driver of the Bixey auto said he tooted his horn and called to Mr. Moulthrop, but he is sure the latter did not hear him.

The coroner's decision in the case of George L. Lockwood, who ran down and killed George J. Johnston, in Norwalk, on July 10, is that Lockwood be held for manslaughter in causing the death of Johnston, by running into him with his automobile while driving at a reckless rate of speed. On the night of July 10th, Mr. Johnston was riding his bicycle alongside of a trolley ear and Mr. Lockwood came up becar and Mr. Lockwood came up be hind him in his machine, and Mr Johnston was hurled from his bleyel and killed almost instantly.
